Edutek

Edutek is an online learning platform which provides technical courses to learn and practice paper to improve performance. The Edutek have three parts Home, Student and Admin Dashboard.

Home

It will be the default screen of the Eduteck. At this screen there are three parts header, main, and footer.

1. Header

- In the header there will be an Edutek logo, search box, links, and menu bar for mobile device.it will be full responsive.
- Logo will be clickable that navigate to the home and with the help of search box we can search courses to read
- In the links it will have Tutorials, courses, translator and login.
- Tutorials will be the dropdown of several courses ex: HTML, CSS, JavaScript
- Courses will be the also dropdown of several courses ex: DSA to Devlopment, GATE & DSA, and Full stack on react, node & mongo DB.
- Translator will translate the whole page into specific language.
- Login will navigate to the login pages that will same for admin login and student login.
- Rendered page for admin will be the Admin dashboard and for student will be the student dashboard.
- At the smartphone viewport in the place of links there will be the Menubar when we will click the menubar icon it will open the drawer.
- Drawers have different links for ex: Login, all courses, tutorials. Every links will be related dropdown.
- On the top of the drawer there will be the cancel icon that will close the drawer.
- When we will click the dropdown links it will navigate to the related page.

- Navigation pages will be all course, DSA to development, for working professionals, for student, tutorials, web development, CS subjects, Web development in python.
- Links of tutorials will navigate to the courses page HTML, CSS, JavaScript, ReactJs, NodeJs, PHP, and Python.

2. Main

- It will have three section advertisement carousels that describe the eduteck, course section and Signup form to registration.
- In the course section there will be the all paid and free courses.
- Free courses will be in the drawer and tutorials section but here..
- In the Advertisement carousel that will be the images which describe the Edutek organization and its facilities.
- To registration these fields will require first name, last name, contact number, email, gender, password, confirm password.
- Registration form will be validation features.
- Also send a notification to the registered email and contact number.
- After registration it will rendered to the Student Dashboard.
- Admin registration will be the one time registration.
- Course section has two parts free and paid.
- Free courses can read anyone and also can save the course topics for future recap.
- But this course section has popular courses, course categories, online courses and offline courses
- Paid course will have also MCQ practice feature.
- Paid courses can have online when you registered successfully. It will give a popup for successfully registered and lectures, recorded lectures, notes, certificate.
- We can purchase a course by UPI, QR code.

- Course containers have a course image, course title, rating, course amount, and explore button.
- Explore button rendered to the related page that will have these parts main header, course introduction, overview, content, instructor, review, rating and FAQ section after this main footer will be common.
- Every course type will have similar layout.

3. Footer

- In the footer section there will be the logo of the edutek and social media platforms links.
- Footer will have also about us and contact us links that will navigate to the related page.
- In the contact us there will be the contact information and Google map of the Edutek office
- Footer also have course and tutorials links

Student Dashboard

- Student can see profile and he can edit, update the name, contact number, password, profile picture.
- Edit option gives an edit modal after update it will give update popup.
- He can change the contact number and password via opt verification.
- He can give MCQ.
- In the MCQ section there will be the next and previous button.
- He will get score card of exams.
- He can see the list of given test.
- He can read the topics of the courses and can save the topics.
- He can see the saved topics or courses.

Admin Dashboard

- Admin can see his profile with the dropdown.
- Dropdown have these options edit their profile picture, name, password, contact number and logout.
- Logout will be rendered to the Login page.
- Edit option gives an edit modal after with specific fields and after update it will give updated with popup.
- Admin can see the list of registered students in a table.
- Pagination will be in the student table.
- Search box will be their also to search the student via name or course
- In the student table there will be the name, contact number, email, and enrolled course for paid course.
- He can delete the student with confirmation delete modal.
- After delete the student it will give deleted popup notification.
- Admin can add questions and their options.
- He can add course, amount and their topics.
- He can also edit, delete the course.

Rendered Pages Layout

- Every rendered page for the course and tutorials will common layout.
- Layout will have selected course or tutorials topic carousel after the main header.
- And after carousel will be the main. Main will have courses topic and their explanation with read more option.
- Every rendered page will be the same footer.
- In the footer section there will be the edutek icon and social media links.

Rendered Page HTML

- For an example after selecting the HTML from tutorials dropdown it will navigate to the html page.
- In that page after main header there will be the horizontal carousel of HTML topics like Introduction, basic, element, attributes, headings, paragraph, form, semantic tags etc.
- Every topic will have related examples with Test example button that will provide the feature of run your code.
- When you click the test button it will navigate to the new page which has two sections one is code editor and 2nd one will be like as a browser .
- It has also back button to navigate previous page buttons.
- In the every Main HTML topics have their next and previous button to switch next and previous pages.
- Large device will have side bar for topics.
- Mobile device will have carousel of topics.